To whom it may concern,

Nate Butler is a unique talent. When he picks up his pencil to draw his audience is enraptured. He holds them spell bound as characters emerge on the drawing board.

But Nate's talents go far beyond his artistic ability. Nate is an absolute joy to work with. He is cooperative, always sensitive to the needs of those he works with. If anything, Nate is too generous. He quite literally will give till it hurts.

Nate is an incredible teacher of art and his knowledge of the comic book industry is unrivaled in Christian circles. He is also a tremendous public speaker with an amazing personal testimony of God's grace.

I can wholeheartedly recommend Nate to you as a speaker, teacher and media missionary. He is a wonderful Brother ready to serve whenever and wherever possible.

I thank the Lord for Nate Butler.

Sincerely,

Steve Benintendi
