To whom it may concern:

We do recommend COMIX35 and their ministry highly.

We have worked together several times on courses in and around Mexico City, regarding Christian comics as a ministry, and I believe interest has been high and results have been great. Nate Butler's artistic talent and gifts as a teacher are outstanding and students have really responded to him and to the rest of the team each time. Even though everything had to be done through translation into Spanish, still it was very effective.

As a person Nate's life and testimony is also a blessing from the Lord.

Obviously the ministry of the comic and related techniques is an important one in this day and age, and this organization has been a pioneer in this area, for which we are grateful.

Sincerely in Christ,
